

Azalea Thomson

I am fourteen years old and a dedicated dancer and studious student. I enjoy reading, writing, baking, singing, vacations, laughing, nature and especially the beach! I know chopping down a tree probably wasn't what the judges had in mind when creating the topic of "Trees in the Forest" for this contest, but I hope it reminds everyone to be thankful for trees and how beautiful they are. What would we do without them?